

Cynthia James
ENTERPRISES

What Will Set You Free

Certified Coach

Cynthia Linnea Bjork, M.Ed. (Colorado)

Cynthia is a multilingual coach with more than ten years of experience coaching in linguistically and culturally diverse contexts including American Indian, Native Hawaiian, First Nations environments as well as Spanish-and French-speaking sites. Cynthia provides warm and grounded approach to transformative coaching for personal growth. She uses her keen intuitive approach balanced by a rich background in the fields of education and counseling. Cynthia brings rich experience that helps her meet a wide array of client needs and comfort levels. Her own personal spiritual practice and energy work contribute to her powerful approach to coaching.

Cynthia's background includes developing a coaching model, aligned with Native ways of knowing and learning, which is currently used in Native Hawaiian and American Indian Tribal education settings and multicultural contexts. Cynthia also provides training for professional coaches and helps organizations build Vision-to-Practice alignment. She is a co-author on two books and several articles in the field of bilingual education.

Contact Cynthia: cynthiabjork@ymail.com